

Sayina Attaf

Professional Curriculum Vitae

Profile

International Business student at HAN University of Applied Sciences with practical experience in marketing, operations management, sustainability, and customer service. Based in Curaçao and motivated to turn academic knowledge into structured business improvements.

Education

HAN University of Applied Sciences - International Business. Focus areas include Marketing, Operations Management, Sustainability, Strategy, and International Business Development.

Professional Experience

- Smullers Arnhem - frontline operations experience in a high-volume fast-food environment at Arnhem Central Station.
- Curaçao Sotheby's International Realty - internship experience in marketing, content development, visibility tracking, and campaign support.
- Academic project work in operations analysis, sustainability assessment, service design, and technology roadmapping.

Core Skills

- Marketing strategy and content development
- Operations management and process analysis
- Sustainability and CSR analysis
- Customer service and communication
- Research, reporting, and presentation
- Microsoft Office, Canva, digital collaboration tools

Selected Projects

- Operations Management Portfolio - Smullers Arnhem
- Sustainability Scan and CSR analysis
- Internship Portfolio - Curaçao Sotheby's International Realty
- Marketing content and visibility projects

Languages

English, Dutch, Papiamentu, and Spanish.

Career Objective

To contribute to an international organization where marketing, business operations, customer insight, and sustainability come together.

Contact	Details
Name	Sayina Attaf
Location	Curaçao / Netherlands
Program	International Business
University	HAN University of Applied Sciences